A Connection with Spirit

A healing adventure on the powerful Big Island of Hawaii
February 3 - 10, 2010

Legend says it's Pele's job to bring the emotions to the surface. It is said you cannot stand barefoot on Pele's pahoehoe (smooth lava) without the things you need to resolve bubbling to the surface. Please join us for healing, rejuvenation, and for connection with Spirit as we experience the beauty and power that the Big Island has to offer...

We will be staying at the incredible "Maluhia La'a" "Home of Sacred Peace" which is nestled among a lush green tropical paradise, along with banana, papaya and fragrant plumeria flowers. A large green lawn surrounds the family (ohana) home, just a few hundred beautiful steps from the bay. Swim with spinner dolphins, go snorkeling and kayaking in the historic Kealahou Bay. It is located on top of a sacred triangle in the Big Island's famous bay.

Simple ritual is one great tool to sharpen the focus of your everyday experiences. And your unconscious is the doorway to your higher connection. We offer two rituals:

1. Elizabeth Thierault, shaman, healer, visionary, leads us in a 2 day drum making gathering to create one's own tool for personal empowerment. This is a creative process that includes a sense of well-being, healing, cultural restoration, community, and team building. By the end of this 2 day gathering, you not only have a beautiful wood frame, and leather stretched drum with drum stick, but also an experiential understanding of how to integrate it's uses within your life and with others. This event culminates by joining the local community drum circle.

2. A meeting of Pele, the Fire Goddess of Hawaii. Native Hawaiian Kahuna (priests) will take us on a private tour to the volcano to meet the Fire Goddess Pele, to be taken on an inter-dimensional journey to "see" her, as she has requested for those whose hearts are ready. Her fire of passion and creativity still flows and forms new land and life each day from this most studied volcano in the world.....such is her awesome power.

Reynolds and Kalei Kaamakawiwoole are both residents of the Big Island of Hawaii. They have been gifted with messages and teachings from many wondrous beings who they've come to call "The Holy Beings". As Twin Flames they work as lock and key and bring their service to you and God.

Also we will...

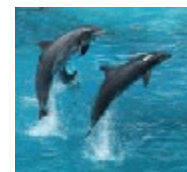

» visit "The Edge of Eternity", the sacred land called Pu'u Honua O'Honaunau (The Place of Refuge)

» connect with the dolphins and whales on a special boat tour

» do yoga and meditation

» have free time to snorkel, swim, kayak, shop, get a massage, or take a day trip of your own choosing

(If you are interested in optional day trips let us know and we can provide a list of options - additional day trip/excursions will be at your own cost)

Please join us in the spirit of Aloha, "that which connects your heart to mine", as we share in common the living love force of the Universe that rides next to the breath and brings our heartbeat!
